ii. PREAMBLE

The Federal Court in its judgment dated 1st August 2008 on the case of Lembaga Jurutera Malaysia (Board of Engineers Malaysia) v Leong Pui Kun (Appeal No. 02-49-2006(W)) ruled on the following:

- The proceedings of statutory tribunals conducting an inquiry are by no means bound by the strict rules which apply to criminal trials.
- Every administrative body is the master of its own procedure and need not assume the trappings of a court.
- The disciplinary proceedings under the Act are not adversarial proceedings. They are inquisitorial or investigatory proceedings.
- The Board may act under Section 15(1) of the Act on its own volition without the need for a formal complaint to be lodged or a complainant to prosecute an errant engineer.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Board has the general discretion to regulate its own procedure and to conduct a hearing in whatever way it deems appropriate, provided it is not in breach of any specific provision of the Act or Regulations, and it does not result in denial of natural justice. These guidelines have been prepared to assist the Board to regulate the conduct of a hearing convened under the Act.
